ROBBERT OR NO ROBBERT-A MOOTED QUESTION. On Monday night, at a late hour, a drover from Kentucky, who had been in attendance at the RAILROAN COLLISION.—We understand that a collision occurred vesterday morning on the Ohio ing paper, yesterday, represented that the man was "bordering on distraction," at his loss, but he is now in a worse predicament than that. is now in a worse predicament than that.

The facts in regard to the matter are about these: The individual in question came to this city with a drove of stock—hogs, we believe—which he disposed of for cash. His home which he disposed of for cash. His home creditors, for some reason, entertained a suspicion that their demands would be more secure if promptly paid, and therefore followed him and demanded their money. On Monday they urged him to a settlement, but were put off with one excuse and another until evening, when the drower visited the theater. After the play was over, and he on his way home, he made an ontery in regard to having his pocket picked, and went into a general lamentation over his loss. The story was reneasted to his creditors vesterday morning, who peated to his creditors yesterday morning, who did not believe a word of it, and therefore had him arrested yesterday, and incarcerated in Covington jail. We do not pretend to give an opinion as to the reported robbery, but the circumstances look very suspicious against the drover. Cincinnati Gazette. The person alluded to in the above is Mr. Frank

Editors' Louisestlis Courser.—I notice in one of your late issues, a communication recommending Prof. W. W. Harney as a suitable candidate for the office of Superintendant of Public Intraction. Perhaps no man throughout Kentucky is better capacitated for performing the duties of that office than Harney. He is a perfect gentleman in his bearing, an accomplished scholar, and a man of fine practical business qualities. I don't know what his claims on the Democracy are, but I know that he is the man for that office, and his nomination by the convention of the 3th of January, will be hailed with delight by thousands.

Others, however, thought the loss much less, and that if not followed by very warm weather, the freeze would acarcely effect the cane at all. Fortunately, their hopes have been gratified, and the weather continues quite cool. Still we believe that in certain localities the eyes of the cane have been damaged.

Senator Hammond's Speech. We have waited to see if the fire-eating pres would tolerate Senator Hammond, of South Car olina. Nobody has said such wicked things of clina. Nobody has said such wicked things of Lecompton; no one has given it so contemptuous a "kick." Is not Manmond an Abolitionist?—Must he not be read out of the party? Shall Douglas excite all the virtuous indignation of patriots, and will they pale before the Senator from South Carolina? We don't think the patriots should make tish of one and flesh of the other.—Low Pemograf.

Our neighbor of the Democrat, in speaking thus of the speech delivered by Senator Ham- The Chief of the Police vs. Washington Circuit mond, at Baruwell court honse, October 27th, either shows that he has not read the document carefully, or that he does not care to give others, who have not read it, a fair idea of its character. The impression conveyed by the above paragraph is, that Hammond, of South Carolina, occupies the same grounds upon the Kansas question that were held by Douglas, of Illinios, and the editor of the Louisville Democrat. Nothing could be more at variance with the true state of the case.

In the first place, Donglas fought and voted against the Kausas bill in every shape which was advocated and voted for by Senator Hammond, and a majority of the Northern Democrats and Southern Know Nothings, co-operating with the united Southern Democracy. Donglas and Hammond were as far apart npon the Kansas issue as so, please let me know immediately, and the matthe poles of the earth. Hammond was for admitting Kansas into the Union as a slave State, under the Lecompton constitution, and Douglas was opposed to any such admission. The positions the two Senators occupied were as irreconcilable as is the doctrine of our neighbor with the tenets of nine-lenths of the Democrats of his own State, who read his own paper.

In the second place, Senator Hammond, in the very speech refered to by our neighbor, expressly says that he did right in voting for the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton constitution, aud contends that he made no sacrifice as a Southerner in so doing. Here are his own words : "I voted for this bill, I voted properly, I voted no compromise, I sacrificed no particle of principle or Southern interest." In the third place, Schator Hammond in direct opposition to Senator Douglas, and our neighbor of the Democrat, contends that the land ordinance submitted by the English bill, was not a submission of the Lecomplou constitution to a vote of the people of the territory. Hear what he says on the subject.

The city of Louisville, and the laws prescribing his duties, does not authorize him to execute any process issuing from any of the courts of this comprocess issuing from any of the courts of this comon the subject :

clause or the words that would justify such an asrtion. If there was such a clause, why did not idge Douglas and his friends vote for it? Why d not the Black Republicans, and all who voted for the Crittenden substitute, which submitted the constitution, vote for the bill? It was the very point they made. Yet to a man they voted against it. That, I think, should be conclusive.

question. The best thing for the South to do in Douglas' case is to let him alone for the present. Let us see what he will do in the next Congress, before we condemn him further, or think of indorsing him. To compare him with certain known frieuds of the South, at this time, and to claim identity, is out of the question. The comparison only makes the contraster ridiculous.

The Doer-of-all-Work Question.

Some days ago the editor of the Journal found himself used up by Bishop Spalding, and in looking round for a reason he supposed the Bishop must have had help in achieving so signal a vic tory. The most powerful ageut he could think of was the knavery of two squires. Clement and Matlack, who had defeated the will of a sovereign people, and made Bill Thomas jailer, instead of Capt. Batman. Hence, the editor concluded, and said, that a squire had helped the Bishop.

At that time these squires did seem to be all powerful. It has since turned out, however, that balance of the Union with "trotters," as she has an appeal has been taken upon the mischief supplied it with "racers" for the last twenty caused by these squires, and as there is a probability of the evil done being set right by the court of appeals, the editor has hunted up a more powerful agent as the supposed helper of the Bishop. He says that "a doer-of-all-work" has been helping the Bisbop.

This conclusion of the editor may accord per fectly with his vanity, but there are few who do not consider the Bishop more than his equal, without the help of one capable of doing all work, or even without the help of a squire. The indications now are that the editor will drop arguments and resort to blackgnardism in his controversy with the Bishop. If he does this we doubt not that he will achieve as signal a trinmph over the Bishop with that accustomed weapon as the Bishop did over him with arguments. In that event we venture to say, moreover, that the Bishop won't claim that any one has helped the editor Since writing the above, which should have ap peared in our issue of yesterday, the Journal has eared in our issue of yesterday, the Journal has bits and actions of the people, as there has been mblished another column and a half against the tishop. The matter is much more decent than that of the day previous, but really the two articles taken together, and considered in their relations to others that have previously appeared in the Journal, indicate that if the Bishop keeps a iackass, and does a part of the braying himself, a jackass keeps the editor of the Journal and makes him do all the braving.

DAILY COUR IER The Yeoman and the Washington Resolutions meeting at Springfield, on the 8th inst., appoint ed delegates to the 8th of January convention, instructed them to vote for Hon. Beriah Magoffin for Governor, Capt. Heady for Lientenant Governor, and, among other things, adopted the two following resolutions:

Resolved, That we deprecate the further agitation of the Kansas-Lecompton question as unwise and unnecessary, and the continued agitation can result only in injury to the party, and is productive of no good result only it lightly to the property of no good.

Risolved, That we regard the question of Lecomptonism as no test of Democracy, and we recognize Stephen A. Douglas as a truly national Democrat, and eminently worty of the support of the party North and South.

The Frankfort Yeoman, one of the ablest and most influential Democratic papers in the land, comments upon these resolutions in the following

The Washington meeting deprecates the agita-tion of the Kansas-Lecompton question as injuri-ous to the interests of the parly, and productive of ne good. At the same time it indorses Stephen A. Douglas, as a "truly national Democrat, and eminently worthy of the anpport of the party North and South." As Mr. Douglas has made the Lecompton issue the very breath of his life, we regard the two resolutions of our Washington regard the two resolutions of our Washington friends, taken together, as singularly unfortunate, and rather imappropriate for such juxtaposition to each other. We think with them, that Lecompton is now a dead issue, and no test of Democracy, but we caunot see anything in the late action of Senator Douglas to call for the compliments of the Kentneky Democracy, unless it be the fact that he beat a Black Republican, without being very nice about the meaus.

We think with the Yeoman, that as Douglas was the prime mover and persistent prosecutor strects, Loniaville, Ky., where travelers can extest, that it would have been well for the Wash ington meeting to have passed Douglas for the present. It will be time enough to indorse Douglas as a national and trne Democrat, especially in a southern State, when his future course is known. We can't tell now what he will do when he gets back to the Senate, nor what he will do when the Charleston Convention meets. He may be as troublesome to the Democracy upou other issues as he was upon the Kansas. It may not be necessary for our Democratic meetings to condemn Douglas at present, but it is certainly assuming too much to indorse him, uutil his past is atoned for by his future

A watch and chain were found upon the hody, some letters and several valuable notes, and also ome letters and several valuable notes, and als a name marked upon the shirt worn by the deceased, showed him to be Mr. J. There was no horse on which the deceased might have been riding; his boot were very muddy. At the time our informan hassed, two men were digging a grave to bury him, just by the cabin where he lay. BOWLING GREEN, McLaine, Memphis SHENANGO, French, St. Louis. THE RIVER was rising very slowly, yesterday, scarcely two inches in 24 hours, with a little over ave feet water in the canal. Pink Varble, falls pilot, reports 31 inches water on the falls, through the pass. The weather, after three nights and moraings of heavy frosts and ice, turned more moderate vesterday, and a little more rain would cinnati the river was stationary, vesterday, and about the same report came from Pittsburgh.

The rise at this point has reached its maximum, and it will be a tight squeeze to get the Tiger, bound for Mobile, over the falls. She is too wide for the canal, and draws a few inches too much for the falls. If her bottom and timbers are stout, ahe can, under skillful guidance, make the passage by jumping a few inches. The Natchez went over the falls, on her first trip, drawing four or five inches more than the water in the chute.

The Poland, Captain Frisbee, having been desired takes her departure to the Quachita river.

tained, takes her departure to the Ouachita river this evening. She has already engaged over 150 tons of merchandise, liquors, provisious, etc., all purchased in this city during the past day or two by parties on the hoat.

The last arrivals report nearly five feet on the bars along the lower Ohio, and the lower part of the river falling pretty fast, caused by the rapid fall of the Mississippi, which drains the water off. This will make Cumberland har troublesome, un-less a rise in the Cumberland intervenes. The river below the falls, since the lowest stage of water this season, has risen, altogether, five feet, which ought to make five feet "out."

The Mississippi, at Memphis, had risen two feet at the last advices, and was still swelling. It has, however, been falling fast at St. Louis, which will soon make it recede at Memphis.

A good rise is reported in Red river. THE WESTERN RIVERS .- The Saint Louis News yesterday has the tollowing:

The Metropolitan arrived this morning from St. Paul, with her lith and last trip for the season. She left St. Paul on Thursday last; when near Winona she experienced a heavy snow storm. About S inches of snow fell.

The upper Missouri river is about used up for all the purposes of navigation this season. The Omaha reports the Dan Convers sunk a few miles from the Watossa, between St. Joseph and Amazonia. The selegraph this morning reports the sinking of the Mansfeld, but this must be incorrect, as the Omaha left the steamer at St. Joseph, loading for Omaha, on the same date of the dispatch. The St. Joseph Gazette of the 10th Inst., states that a report had been in circulation that the steamer was sunk, but contradicted it.

The steamer Lake City, which has been in the upper Mississippi trade, is loading for Cincinnati and Pritsburgh. The Audubon, which has been in the same trade, will run during the winter in the White, Black, and other streams, one-half of her having been claritered by Capt. Price, of Jacksonville, Arkansss. COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE LOUISVILLE COURIER, WEDNESDAY EVENING, Nov. 17. We notice an increased activity in the general market which together with the improvement in navigation, and the commencement of the pork packing season, has made business quite brisk. The supplies of grocerles are also increasing, and sugar has somewhat declined. The imports of merchandise, iron, glass, nails, and other manufactured articles from Pittsburgh, Wheeling, and the East, have hesn rather heavy, and the supplies may be set down to abundant and well assorted. The controversy and troubfe with the city authorities in regard the inspection of tohacco, is as yet, unsettled, but the farmers and buyers need be under no apprehensions in regard to the controversy, as it cannot jeopardise, or jure the trade. The warehouse men will particularly watch over the interests of the producer, and tobacco is in such constant demand here, that the buyers are certain to invariably pay the best market price. Good judges of tobacco are interested in the auction waresouses, and will attend especially to the sampling and sale of every hogshead sent to the market. The pork packing season is now in full operation, and all the slaughter houses will he at work by the close of ths week. The receipts of hogs by railroads, and on foot, have averaged five thousand per day, for some days, and the pens are pretty well filled. The market has gradually assumed a firmer tone, with an advance in both hogs and the product, though most of the trans actions have not been made public. We can, however quote sales of over 5,000 hogs at $6 20 to 6 80 net, for early delivering, chiefly at $6 25. In some instances at the close, choics hogs would command higher rates.— Considerable sales are noted in our summary annexed At Indianapolis, 8,000 hogs have been slaughtered, with alss for December delivered at $6, the highest price, for choice lots. Prices yesterday had advanced to $6 40. The Central Porkhouse, at Lexington, Ky. nmenced killing on Wednesday, and had slaughtered 2 000 head, with sales at $450, gross. At Lafayette Ind., a few hogs have been slaughtered at $5, and at St Louis $5 50a5 75 were the rates a few days since, but since the packing there, commenced, a few choice lots of logs commanded $6. The farmers are realizing hand omely at the present prices, as it is the rule that

Corn is worth less than 50 cents to the farmer, while hogs are freely selling at over 6 cents .-The advance, however, is mainly predicated upon the anticipations of a "short crop" of hogs. The Cincinnatl Cazette of yesterday has the following: nau cazette of yesterday has the following:

The speculative demand for hogs noticed in our last has continued with hut slight intermission during the week, and the contracts made for future delivery have been irrge, and the desire to buy, on the part of outsiders, general and strong. Our regular pacters have not been buying freely, and as a general thing, have no faith in the present extraordinary high prices. The sales during the week add up 40,000 head, chiefly for future delivery, opening at $6.25, and closing at $6.50 for hogs averaging 200 lbs, and at the close, the latter rate would be paid for present delivery, and holders asked $6.75.

The stitch is the hest made by machinery, and it is superior to the best hand sewing. It is elastic, and therefore not liable to break by any strain in washing or otherwise. Every fourth stitch may be cut and the sewing will still hold. The machine sews from two common spools, and for speed is not surpassed. For sale by McNAUGHTAN & CO.,
